SOME LITURGICAL CALENDAR ITEMS

FEAST OF SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL, VIRGIN

Thursday, March 3, 2011

The commemoration of Saint Katharine Drexel is a proper Feast in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The proper texts for the celebration of the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours can be found on the website for the Office for Worship.

ASH WEDNESDAY AND LENT

Wednesday, March 9, 2011

Ashes are distributed only on Ash Wednesday and not the days before or after. The possible forms in the Sacramentary and in the Book of Blessings, Chapter 52, are to be observed.

CONFESSIONS ON THE WEDNESDAYS OF LENT

Parish resources to promote a better understanding and preparation for the celebration of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation can be found on the website for the Office for Worship, as well as, the Office for the Formation of the Laity. Also, click the banner on the Archdiocesan home page, God is Rich in Mercy, for the same resources.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT AND THE RITE OF ELECTION

Sunday, March 13, 2011

- Details regarding the Rite of Election have been distributed by mail by the Office for the Formation of the Laity to the parish coordinators for Christian Initiation.
- All priests are invited to vest in choir dress in the Neumann Room behind the Cathedral Basilica Sanctuary for the procession for the Rite of Election. The Book of the Elect is to be carried during the Rite of Election by someone other than a priest or deacon.
- Pastors should arrange for the Parish Celebration for Sending Catechumens for Election and Candidates for Recognition by the Bishop prior to the Rite of Election on the First Sunday of Lent. The Celebration for Sending is outlined in the ritual book, Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, numbers 530-546. The Celebration of Sending may take place in a celebration of the Word of God or at Mass.

SOLEMNITY OF SAINT JOSEPH

Saturday, March 19, 2011

Masses celebrated on the evening before, (March 18) are of the Solemnity.

Today is also the baptismal name day of our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI. A petition in the Prayer of the Faithful for his intentions is fitting on this day.

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

Friday, March 25, 2011

Masses celebrated on the evening before, (March 24) are of the Solemnity.

The obligation to abstain from meat is not binding on Friday, March 25, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. The law of the Church (Canon 1251) provides for this exception since the Solemnity overrides Friday Lenten observance.

CELEBRATION OF THE SCRUTINIES AND PRESENTATIONS OF THE CREED AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Rites Belonging to the Period of Purification and Enlightenment, numbers 138-205, found in the ritual book, Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, are to be carefully observed for the Elect. Any questions regarding these rites may be directed to the Office for Worship or the Office for the Formation of the Laity.

VEILING OF STATUES

In the dioceses of the United States, crosses in the church may be covered from the conclusion of the Mass for the Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday. Statues in the church may be covered from the conclusion of the Mass for Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent until the beginning of the Easter Vigil. The United States Bishops approved this recovered practice in 2001 and additional information can be found on the website for the Office for Worship.

THE SACRED PASCHAL TRIDUUM

Additional Information for Liturgical Preparation

The Circular Letter Concerning the Preparation and Celebration of the Easter Feasts (Paschale Solemnitatis), by the Congregation for Divine Worship, January 16, 1988, is posted on the website for the Office for Worship. This letter provides helpful pastoral, theological and liturgical (as well liturgical music) information for pastors and preparers of the Liturgy for Lent, the Triduum and Easter time.

Notes for the celebration of the Triduum according to the revised rubrics found in the 2002 edition of the Missale Romanum can be found on the website of the Office for Worship and also the website of the Bishops' Committee for Divine Worship. These rubrics have the force of law for the universal Church since the promulgation of the typical edition of the 2002 Missale Romanum and will be incorporated into the new English translation of this same liturgical book.

The Reception of the Holy Oils Blessed at the Chrism Mass

The 2004 Sacramentary Supplement provides instructions and the form for the reception of the new oils at the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. This same information can be found on the website for the Office for Worship. Also, Cardinal Rigali's 2010 instruction on the Holy Oils can be found on the website for the Office for Worship.

Celebrant of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday

The nature and context of this Good Friday Liturgy requires a priest celebrant and cannot be delegated to a deacon or a lay person.

Time of the Easter Vigil

The Easter Vigil should not begin before nightfall. It may be helpful to know that sunset, according to the US Naval Observatory Astronomical Applications Department, occurs at 7:47 PM on April 23, 2011.

THE SACRAMENTS OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

Conditional Baptism

The following norm is to be observed in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia with regard to the reception of candidates into the full communion of the Catholic Church:

Baptism is the doorway to all of the Sacraments. Therefore, the sacred minister needs moral certitude that a person was baptized with the Trinitarian formula and the triple water pouring/immersion before other Sacraments are celebrated. This moral certitude requires more than the evidence of a baptismal certificate and must be the case in each individual circumstance. Such moral certitude can often be readily obtained through inquiry with the candidate. When moral certitude is lacking, a conditional Baptism is necessary (see Canon 869 and National Statutes for the Catechumenate 37).

Confirmation for Roman Catholic Adults

The ordinary minister of the Sacrament of Confirmation for baptized Roman Catholics is the Bishop. Typically, this occurs during the pastoral visit of the Bishop to the parish.

Additionally, Cardinal Rigali will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday, June 12, 2011 during the 2:00 PM Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul. The candidates for this sacramental celebration are baptized Roman Catholics who have been properly catechized for Confirmation (and if needed, for the reception of First Communion). Information about this celebration for pastors and those who assist with the formation and reception of the Sacraments of Initiation will be made available on the website for the Office for Worship and the Office for the Formation of the Laity.

Confirmation by Priests

A pastor who foresees the genuine pastoral need to confirm a baptized Roman Catholic can do so only with the specific delegation of the Bishop (see Canon 882 and National Statutes for the Catechumenate 28-29). The request for such delegation is to be made in writing, including the name of the priest and the individual(s) prepared for the Sacrament of Confirmation. While the request is to be addressed to the Archbishop, the letter is directed to Bishop McIntyre.

Commutation of the Periods and Steps of Christian Initiation

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults allows for a commutation and adaptation of the periods and steps for sacramental initiation which typically correspond to the observance of Lent and the celebration of the Easter Vigil. The Bishop can allow for such commutation and adaptation in exceptional circumstance. Cardinal Rigali grants such permission.

Numbers 34 and 331 in the ritual book, Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, describe arrangements for an adapted process for Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

ROMAN MISSAL FORMATION
IN THE ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
PARISH BASED CATECHESIS FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

The Office for Worship has produced a parish based catechesis for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for the reception of the Roman Missal for use beginning Advent 2010 through Advent 2011. This catechesis is called: Know the Words, Know the Meaning, Know the Mystery. It is designed for a great variety of uses in the parish and for a great variety of parish groups. It can be downloaded and inserted into parish bulletins, printed for discussion and reflection, and provide content for school and religious education classes.

The two-page catechetical segments are arranged according to the following topics and calendar. A more complete set of instructions for use and the catechetical segments is available on the website for the Office for Worship.

Know the Words, Know the Meaning, Know the Mystery
