

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, B

Priest Celebrant

Be confident in the Lord Jesus, who intercedes at the Right Hand of the Father:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the Church depend solely on our Father's Providence, as she looks eagerly toward her Savior's return,
let us pray to the Lord:

That each Sunday's Eucharist keep us mindful of our daily blessings and our obligation to share them,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the faithful use the gifts of creation wisely and preserve them for generations to come,
let us pray to the Lord:

That local, state, and federal officials devote themselves to the common good and resist the corruption of this world,
let us pray to the Lord:

That society turn away from abortion and the violence that characterizes our times,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the peace for which our Savior died come to his homeland and its neighbors;
that our armed forces soon be united with their families,
let us pray to the Lord:

That [ , and all]
our sick abide in confidence,
let us pray to the Lord:

That [ , and all]
the faithful departed enter our Father's presence,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

O Lord, our portion and cup, show us the path to life and the delights at Your right hand for ever and ever.
