

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, B

Priest Celebrant

In Jesus, who rescues us and calms our fears,
we can entrust ourselves to his and our Father:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity of the Church, Christ's Body,
and the healing of our sins of division,
we pray to the Lord:

For local and national leaders who labor for the well-being of their own and of all the world's peoples,
we pray to the Lord:

For the swift return home of our armed forces;
for civilians and the military who suffer the ravages of war,
we pray to the Lord:

For the unemployed and under-employed,
we pray to the Lord:

For victims of violence and abuse; for the safety of children;
for an end to the violence and pornography of the media,
we pray to the Lord:

For the disabled, the aged, and their care-givers;
for medical personnel who support life at every stage,
we pray to the Lord:

For [, and all]
our sick,
we pray to the Lord:

For everyone who has died recently [in particular],
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Father, gather us together in your only Son,
who gave his life for us to live with you,
now and for ever.
