Grant, we beg of You, to us who ask it, the gift of Your most divine love, that we may ever love You with our whole heart, in word and deed, and never cease praising You. Give us, O Lord, as much a lasting reverence as a lasting love of Your Holy Name, for You, who live and are King for ever and ever, never fail to govern those whom You have solidly established in Your love. Amen.

HAVE MERCY ON US, O LORD A PRAYER VIGIL OF REPARATION AND PETITION

Friday, September 14, 2018
Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross

5 PM to Midnight

Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul 18th Street & Benjamin Franklin Parkway
Philadelphia, PA 19103

PRAYER GUIDE

Enclosed you will find a guide for your time of prayer during this vigil. It is formatted for an hour of adoration, but please feel free to adjust the timing as you see fit.

SUGGESTED FORMAT FOR YOUR TIME OF PRAYER

Begin with a few minutes of silent adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

10 Minutes - Gospel Meditation, John 10:11-15, 17-18

I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father.

Silent meditation on the words of the Gospel

15 Minutes - Petitions, prayed slowly, with silence in between each

Lord Jesus, present here in the Blessed Sacrament, I ask your pardon and pray in preparation for:

- All sins of sexual abuse and sexual immorality, especially by members of the Catholic clergy
- All sins of cowardice, deception, sloth and self-protection, especially among those in positions of authority in the Church
- Our collective indifference to Christ's teachings on human sexuality
- All forms of scandal and infidelity, including our own personal sins, through which we have been an obstacle to others finding God

Lord Jesus, present here in the Blessed Sacrament, confident in your superabounding mercy, I ask you for the graces of:

- Healing for the victims of sexual abuse
- Purgation of the Church from all evil
- Rooting out of all compromise, infidelity and lukewarmness in our own lives and in those of our bishops and priests
- New outpouring of the Holy Spirit to set the Church aflame with radical holiness, fidelity and zeal for the Gospel

20 Minutes - Personal prayer and silent adoration—converse from your heart with Christ.

15 Minutes - Meditation and Final Prayers

"We are celebrating the feast of the cross which drove away darkness and brought in the light. As we keep this feast, we are lifted up with the crucified Christ, leaving behind us earth and sin so that we may gain the things above. So great and outstanding a possession is the cross that he who wins it has won a treasure. Rightly could I call this treasure the fairest of all fair things and the costliest, in fact as well as in name, for on it and through it and for its sake the riches of salvation that had been lost were restored to us... The cross is honorable because it is both the sign of God's suffering and the trophy of his victory. It stands for his suffering because on it he freely suffered unto death. But it is also his trophy because it was the means by which the devil was wounded and death conquered; the barred gates of hell were smashed, and the cross became the one common salvation of the whole world." -excerpt, Office of Readings, Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, from a discourse by St. Andrew of Crete

Final Prayers

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from Christ's side, wash me Passion of Christ, strengthen me
O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Suffer me not to be separated from Thee
From the malicious enemy defend me
In the hour of my death call me
And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints and with Thy angels forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer of St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Salve Regina

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.

Alma Redemptoris Mater

Loving Mother of the Redeemer, gate of heaven, star of the sea, assist your people who have fallen yet strive to rise again. To the wonderment of nature you bore your Creator, yet remained a virgin after as before. You who received Gabriel's joyful greeting, have pity on us poor sinners.

Mary, Mother of the Church and Our Mother, pray for us.
