

How long must one fast before receiving Holy Communion?

The Church requires a fast of one hour from all solid foods and liquids, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic (with the exception of water, which can be taken at any time, and medicine).