Father Dennis Gill, Director of the Office for Worship, will conduct each of the sessions. Priests, deacons, and coordinators for the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy are most welcome to attend.

These sessions will include an overview of the role of the Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, a role-play of the duties of the Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion during Mass and Communion of the Sick, including the sending of the Extraordinary Minister from the Sunday Mass to the sick. All of this information will be available on the Office for Worship website by the time of the first training session.

Resource materials, liturgical books, spiritual reading as well as pyxes, will be available for purchase at each of the training sessions.

If you have any questions about the training sessions, please contact the Office for Worship at 215-587-3537.
