

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Pour out your hearts, my people, to our God and Father, who is our safety and glory, our strength and refuge:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our Church, the single-hearted steward of God's mysteries;
for trust in our Father's providence,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of our materialistic culture;
for the stewardship of God's gifts of nature for everyone's benefit;
for their nourishment and housing, healthcare and education,
let us pray to the Lord:

For farmers and the productivity of the land;
for safety from natural disasters,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in war-torn lands;
for the relief of civilians and the military,
let us pray to the Lord:

For victims of racial, ethnic or religious persecution,
of political or economic oppression,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety and care of the unborn and of all children;
for freedom from verbal, physical, sexual abuse,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [and all]
our brothers and sisters who bear Christ's sufferings,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [and]
whoever has died this past week,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

In you, we trust at all times,
our Father, our safety and glory.
Be our rock of strength and refuge,
now and for ever.
