

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

With hands and hearts uplifted,
let us call on the name of the Lord:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For hearts and minds renewed in spiritual worship;
for bodies offered in living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to our Father,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters who bear the cross of religious, political, or economic persecution,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of racial and ethnic prejudices and of religious intolerance,
let us pray to the Lord:

For stability in Iraq and its neighbors;
for war victims, living and deceased; for the safe return of our forces,
let us pray to the Lord:

For families; for the protection of children
from the immorality and false values of the media,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the protection of the unborn and of all human beings;
for the reverent use, sharing, and conservation of earth's gifts,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick [today especially _____],
let us pray to the Lord:

For [_____ , and]
everyone who has died recently,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

O God, you are the God we seek.
To you we gaze in your sanctuary,
to see your power and glory,
and to live with you,
for ever and ever.
