

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

With hands upraised, let us call on the Name of the Lord, for whom our flesh pines and our souls thirst:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the Holy Spirit's gift of wisdom;
for its firm guidance of Christ's Church,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our elected officials and public servants;
for the wisdom to foster the well-being of their peoples,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the blessings of peace upon countries at war;
for the exchange of weapons into instruments of human progress,
let us pray to the Lord:

For lasting assistance to our sisters and brothers who bear the ravages of war, earthquake, hurricanes,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the displaced, the refugee, the immigrant to find homes in our midst,
let us pray to the Lord:

In gratitude for our brothers and sisters, living and deceased,
who have served - and serve - our country,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [, and]
whoever bears the suffering of our Savior in body, mind, spirit,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [and all]
the faithful departed,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

We bless you, O Lord,
whose kindness is a greater good than life.
We praise you, who live and reign for ever and ever.
