

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Steadfast is the kindness of the Lord,
whose fidelity endures forever:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the Church be the sign of salvation to every nation
east and west, north and south,
let us pray to the Lord:

That Christians reunite at our Father's one table,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the peace of the Cross lead to lasting justice in the Holy Land and its neighbors, Sudan, and every suffering land,
let us pray to the Lord:

That nations exchange weapons for instruments of human progress;
that our armed forces return safely to their families,
let us pray to the Lord:

That parents and children grow in respect
for one another, every neighbor, and all God's creation,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the fruit of righteousness heal hearts broken by addictions,
abuse, imprisonment,
let us pray to the Lord:

That [, and all]
our sick abide in confidence,
let us pray to the Lord:

That our dead know eternal happiness in God's Kingdom [today in particular],
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Lord, gather the nations, to see your glory and to offer you the pleasing sacrifice of forgiveness, tolerance, and the sharing of your gifts.
Through Christ our Lord.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Our Father, who provides every good thing, hears our every prayer:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the laity, consecrated religious, and ordained - living signs of our merciful Father's forgiveness -
let us pray to the Lord:

For local, state, and national leaders;
for our police, fire-fighters, and first responders,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the reverent use and sharing of God's gifts;
for resistance to materialism,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in Iraq, Syria, and their neighbors;
for the victims of war and the safe return of the military;
for an end to genocide in Sudan and throughout the world,
let us pray to the Lord:

For teachers and students in the new school year;
for progress in knowing, loving, and serving God and neighbor,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the protection of the unborn;
for refugees, the homeless, the lonely, the imprisoned,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [] and all]
our sick; for their families and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [],
the war dead, and all our recent deceased,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Heavenly Father,
in Jesus, Mediator of the new covenant,
accept us as faithful servants,
who find favor with you. Through Christ our Lord.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Look to the Lord, who, at daybreak, fills us with kindness
and prospers the work of our hands:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

Guide your Church in your own wisdom and counsel, Lord.
For this we pray:

Guide local, national, and world leaders on your paths of peace.
Preserve the world from terrorism.
For this we pray:

Heal our sins of abortion and of every incursion on human life.
Free our cities from violence and murder. Protect our police, fire-fighters, first responders, and all public servants.
For this we pray:

Relieve the sufferings of civilians wherever war prevails.
Bring our armed forces safely home.
For this we pray:

Foster dedication to learning among teachers and students.
For this we pray:

Sustain [and all]
our sisters and brothers who bear the cross of illness.
For this we pray:

Heal the survivors of violence and terrorism.
Comfort everyone who mourns the murdered.
For this we pray:

Take to your home the countless victims of war, violence, terror,
and everyone who has died recently [].
For this we pray:

Priest Celebrant Have pity on your servants, Lord.
Teach us to number our days aright
and to gain wisdom of heart.
May your gracious care be ours.
Through Christ our Lord.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Speak confidently to our Father, whose great compassion wipes out our offenses
and cleanses us from sin:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our Holy Father, his brother bishops, priests and deacons;
for all the servants of Christ's Body, his Church,
let us pray to the Lord:

our legislators, judges and all public servants
let us pray to the Lord:

For our teachers and students;
for progress in knowledge, love, and service to God and neighbor,
let us pray to the Lord:

For medical personnel and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For civilians and the military;
for peace in the Near and Mid-East, and every land in peril,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the addicted, their families and care-givers; for our sick [today in particular _____],
let us pray to the Lord:

For [_____ , and]
all our recently deceased sisters and brothers,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant To our God and Father,
to the King of Ages, the only God,
be honor and glory, now and for ever.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Beloved, let us now offer the Father
our supplications and prayers,
our petitions and thanksgivings:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For truth and honesty, morality and chastity
in our Church, in public services, and individual dealings,
let us pray to the Lord:

For good example, in word and action,
especially before our children,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the security of human life
from natural conception to natural conclusion,
let us pray to the Lord:

For fidelity to our vocations;
for the unemployed and underemployed,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of the abused and the conversion of abusers;
for our sisters and brothers in addiction and in recovery;
for the imprisoned,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the exchange of death-dealing weapons
for the tools of human advancement,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [, and]
everyone who bears the Cross in body, mind, spirit,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters who died this past week [in particular],
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Blessed be the name of the Lord
both now and for ever.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Let us pray to be faithful to Jesus' commandments until he appears in his glory:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That we members of _____ Parish fulfill our baptismal promises to serve our parish and diocese, our Church and neighbor, let us pray to the Lord:

That tithing God's material gifts make us generous in donating the time and talents our Father also entrusts to us, let us pray to the Lord:

That the ordained embody Jesus' own righteousness, devotion, and faith; his love, patience, and gentleness, let us pray to the Lord:

That government officials be free of self-seeking, to follow Jesus' preferential treatment of the poor, let us pray to the Lord:

That the nations support peace negotiations between Palestine and Israel and wherever conflict prevails, let us pray to the Lord:

That the waste and futility of war come to an end; that civilians and our armed forces be out of harm's way, let us pray to the Lord:

That our sick []
abide in the charity of family, friends, and medical personnel,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the victims of war and all our beloved dead know eternal happiness in the bosom of Abraham [today in particular],
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant To you, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, be honor and power, now and for ever.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

let us pray to the Lord:

For the reverent use and sharing of God's gifts
of body, mind, and spirit;
let us pray to the Lord:

For local, state, and national leaders; for public servants;
for the preferential treatment of the poor;
for the imprisoned and their families,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in Iraq, Syria, Israel, Palestine, and every agonized land;
for an end to terrorism, war and nuclear weapons,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims of terrorism and war;
for the safe return of military personnel,
let us pray to the Lord:

For recognition of the sanctity of human life
from conception through natural conclusion;
for the married desirous of parenthood,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [] and all]
our sick, their caregivers and medical personnel,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [] , and]
everyone who has died recently;
for the relatives and friends they leave to mourn,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Hear your servants, Lord,
who place their trust in you.
Be our Rock of salvation, now and for ever.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, C4

Priest Celebrant Brothers and Sisters, raise heart and voice to the Lord,
who has done wondrous deeds:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader
