

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Come before the Lord who made us and tends us as his flock:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our Holy Father and his brother bishops, successors to the Apostles; for our priests and deacons and their increase,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the single laity and consecrated religious;
for the engaged and the married,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the widowed, the separated, the divorced,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our president, governor, legislators, and judges;
for our country's security and the safety of the military,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the Mid-East and central Asia;
for the victims of warfare, greed, intolerance;
for an end to terror,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety of our children;
for their physical, mental, and spiritual enrichment,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our suffering sisters and brother, whose lives grow short in this world;
for their families and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For []
and everyone for whom our Shepherd gave his life,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Before you we bow, our God and Father, who have reconciled us in your own Son's Blood.
Sustain our lives in him.
Who lives with you
for ever and ever.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant Our Father hears the poor and in great kindness answers us:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the Church, our sign of salvation and of freedom from fear,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our Holy Father and his brother bishops;
for our priests, deacons, and seminarians,
let us pray to the Lord:

For elected officials and public servants;
for honesty in government and the observance of law,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the equitable sharing of our Father's gifts throughout the world;
for the security of our children, born and to be born,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims of ethnic cleansing and of religious persecution;
for the healing of economic and social injustices,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the many lands in peril of civil war;
for the safety of civilians and of the military,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the homeless, the refugee, the immigrant;
for hearts that welcome new neighbors,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick and injured and their care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For []
and everyone who has died recently,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Heavenly Father, hear your children who pray for the time of your favor.
With the heavens and the earth, accept our praise.
Through Christ our Lord.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A.

Priest Celebrant

Let our prayer be one with our Father's promise:
"My kindness is established for ever!"

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the Church, as she takes up the Cross daily with Jesus to die and rise in him,
let us pray to the Lord:

For catechumens, for the engaged; for ordination candidates;
for fidelity to our vocations and states of life,
let us pray to the Lord:

For racial and religious tolerance; for international cooperation, protection of the environment, and equitable sharing of earth's resources,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the Holy Land, the Mid-East, Central Asia; in Africa and wherever threats of war loom,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the defense of life at every stage and the safety of children;
for the healing of the abused and the abuser,
let us pray to the Lord:

For reconciliation within families and with relatives and neighbors,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our war-injured, our sick and their care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [.]
the victims of war, terror, crime and the families who mourn them,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Through all generations, Father in heaven, we proclaim your fidelity to us in your Son, who has died and risen for us and who lives and reigns with you
for ever and ever.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Brothers and sisters
lift heart and voice to him who said
"Come to me, all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the peace and unity of the Church,
let us pray to the Lord:

For local, state, and national leaders;
for our police, firefighters, and all public servants,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the Holy Land, the Mid-East and Central Asia; for the relief of civilians and the security of the military,
let us pray to the Lord:

For doctors, nurses, and everyone who serves the sick;
for care-givers at home,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the poor, here and abroad;
for the equitable and prudent sharing of God's gifts of nature and of grace,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the health, safety, and education of our children;
for the healing of any who suffer abuse,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters who are burdened in body, mind, spirit,
let us pray to the Lord:

For _____, and]
everyone who has died this past week,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Gracious and merciful Father, who are compassionate towards all your works,
lift us if we fall,
and raise our sisters and brothers who are bowed down.
Through Christ our Lord.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Let the Word that the Lord has planted in us flower into prayer for his Church and for all God's children:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the fruitful hearing and proclamation of God's Word in our Church and in the world,
we pray to the Lord:

For the observance of God's commandments and Christ's law of charity in our legislatures and courts,
we pray to the Lord:

For married couples desirous of children;
for expectant parents;
for the health and safety of children born and to be born,
we pray to the Lord:

For farmers and the many who provide nourishment,
we pray to the Lord:

For the unemployed and underemployed; for the just distribution of food and resources world-wide,
we pray to the Lord:

For an end to terror and war;
for the healing of their victims;
for the safety of military personnel and of our civilian police,
we pray to the Lord:

For the chronically ill and their caregivers,
we pray to the Lord

For [
our faithful departed,
we pray to the Lord:

and all]

Priest Celebrant

Plant your saving word deep within us, Father, to yield a rich harvest.
Through Christ our Lord.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant Call on the Lord, who abounds in kindness and attends to the sound of our pleading:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity and fidelity of the Church in the worship of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and in service to the children of God,
let us pray to the Lord:

For repentance within and between the nations of the world;
for relief from economic corruption, political oppression, war,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the physical, intellectual, and spiritual growth of our children;
for their protection from exploitation and abuse,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the responsible use of natural and human resources;
for bountiful crops at home and abroad and adequate food world-wide,
let us pray to the Lord:

For an end to terror;
for the conversion of hearts enslaved to violence, lawlessness, revenge,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers who bear emotional or mental distress, addictions, imprisonment;
for their families and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the war-injured and all our sick;
for medical personnel and volunteers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers recently called from this world
[in particular today
let us pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant Turn toward us, O Lord, and have pity on us.
Strengthen your servants who entrust themselves to your kindness
now, and for ever.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Ask the Lord for the gift of wisdom, to distinguish right from wrong,
with an understanding heart:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the gift of wisdom with the shepherds and faithful of Christ's Body,
we pray to the Lord:

For local, national, and world leaders whose works reflect divine and natural law and the compassionate love of Christ,
we pray to the Lord:

For detachment from this world's goods;
for attachment to the pearl of great price - the Kingdom of God to come,
we pray to the Lord:

For the safety of our children and their physical, mental, moral, and spiritual progress,
we pray to the Lord:

For reconciliation among and with the peoples of the Near and Mid-East;
for the return home of the armed forces, we pray to the Lord:A

For medical personnel and the fostering of human life at every stage; for the generous care of the disabled, the aging, and the dying,
we pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers who bear Christ's suffering in body, mind, or spirit,
we pray to the Lord:

For [, and]
everyone our Father has called this week,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Father, who make all things work together for the good of those who love you, conform us to the image of your Son,
to enter the glory he gained on the Cross.
Who lives and reign for ever and ever.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

The Lord is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity of the Church in faith and prayer, charity and service;
for the reunion of Christ's faithful,
let us pray to the Lord:

For catechumens and their sponsors;
for the engaged and candidates to Holy Orders,
let us pray to the Lord:

For just, honest, and compassionate leaders, locally and nationally; for our police, fire-fighters, first responders, and all public servants,
let us pray to the Lord:

For adequate food the world over;
for relief of international debt and the sharing of knowledge and resources,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the Holy Land and its neighbors;
for stability in the nations and the return home of military forces,
let us pray to the Lord:

For victims of racial, ethnic, religious, or economic oppression,
let us pray to the Lord:

For everyone whom illness weighs down;
for the servants of the sick,
let us pray to the Lord:

For victims of terror and violence, and all our dead [today in particular
let us pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant

To you we look, gracious and merciful Father, who feed your children in due season,
and satisfy the desire of every living being.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

With confidence, call on the Lord, whose salvation is near to those who fear him:

Deacon/Cantor/Priest

For the successors of Peter and the Apostles as they proclaim Christ's truth; for a steady course through the seas of moral and political confusion,
let us pray to the Lord:

For governmental dedication to the common good;
for the elimination of nuclear arms;
for past and present war victims,
let us pray to the Lord:

For public honesty and morality;
for employers and employees; for our brothers and sisters seeking employment,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety of human life at every age;
for families and the protection of children from this world's lies,
let us pray to the Lord:

For stability in Africa, the Near and Mid-East;
for the swift return home of the armed forces;
for victims of violence, terror, war,
let us pray to the Lord;

For the addicted, the imprisoned, and their families,
let us pray to the Lord:

For care-givers and our sick,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our recent deceased [especially _____] and all the faithful departed,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.
Through Christ the Lord, who is over all now and for ever.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

In faith, call on the Lord who heals and feeds us, who gathers together whatever was lost:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the fruitfulness of the Church's ministries of worship, teaching, and service; for the ordained, the religious, and the laity who fulfill them,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our country and its president, congress, and courts;
for our commonwealth and governor, our city and mayor,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of racial and ethnic prejudices, of religious bigotry and intolerance,
let us pray to the Lord:

For immigrants, displaced persons, the homeless;
for relief, wherever hunger and famine lurk,
let us pray to the Lord:

For stability in the Holy Land and all the Near- and Mid-East, throughout Asia, Africa, and wherever war threatens,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims of war and the survivors it leaves to mourn them;
for the swift return of the armed forces,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick and their care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers called from this world
[in particular today
let us pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant

May God have pity on us and bless us.
May his face shine upon us and be gracious to us,
now and for ever.