

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant With the Psalmist, let our prayer be,
"Here I am, Lord. I come to do your will."

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For fidelity to our baptismal promises;
for the unity of Christ's Body in one Church, one Faith, one Baptism,
we pray to the Lord:

For catechumens;
for our sisters and brothers preparing for Reconciliation, Confirmation,
First Communion, Holy Orders, Matrimony,
we pray to the Lord:

For governments dedicated to the protection of the environment,
to the common good, and to the poor,
we pray to the Lord:

For civilians and military personnel;
for the injured, the lost, and the families and friends who mourn them,
we pray to the Lord:

For the fostering of human life from conception to natural conclusion;
for progress through the witness of the "Right to Life" march in Washington,
we pray to the Lord:

For teachers, artists, and scientists;
for those who provide health care, food production, shelter, transportation, and the countless services we depend upon,
we pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers who bear the rigors of winter;
for our sick, their families, and care-givers,
we pray to the Lord:

For the eternal happiness of [ everyone who has died recently, and of]
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Implant your law deep within our hearts, O Father, that we may delight in doing your will.
Through Christ our Lord.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

In prayer we await the Lord,
who is our light and our salvation:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the successor of Peter and his brother bishops, priests, and deacons;
for their fruitful proclamation of the faith throughout the world,
let us pray to the Lord:

For catechumens and candidates for full communion;
for everyone who searches for truth and knowledge of God's will,
let us pray to the Lord:

For fidelity to our vocations; for our seminarians and an increase of priests, deacons, and consecrated religious in Christ's Church,
let us pray to the Lord:

For local, state, and national leaders;
for our police, fire-fighters, and all public servants,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims of religious persecution, discrimination, war;
for the safe return home of military personnel,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the protection of the environment and its God-given gifts;
for the safety of the unborn and the physical and moral protection of our children,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of our sick and injured,
let us pray to the Lord:

For a place in the land of the living for [ _____ , and] all our sisters and brothers who died this past week.
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Father of light and salvation,
bring your children to dwell
with your Son, Jesus Christ.
Who lives with you
for ever and ever.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Let us seek the Lord,
who secures justice for the oppressed
and keeps faith with us for ever:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

Lord, bestow the gift of poverty of spirit on your Church,
to praise you, the Giver of every gift.
For this we pray:

Strengthen our president, governor, mayor, and all public servants,
to meet the hungers of the human family
and to satisfy the thirst for righteousness.
For this we pray:

Raise up peacemakers in our families, schools, and work places,
in our neighborhoods, our country, and among the nations.
For this we pray:

Purify us of racial, ethnic, religious, or class intolerance.
Rescue your persecuted servants of truth and peace.
For this we pray:

Be at the side of everyone who attends the sick, the aging, and the dying,
the homeless, the abandoned, the outcast,
For this we pray:

Heal the abused, the addicted, the imprisoned.
For this we pray:

Sustain our brothers and sisters who suffer in body, mind, spirit.
For this we pray:

Comfort mourners, and grant your heavenly reward to [ , and to] everyone who has died recently.
For this we pray:

Priest Celebrant

We bless you, Lord, who give sight to the blind
and raise up those who are bowed down.
Count us among the peaceful,
the merciful and clean of heart,
who live with you
now and for ever.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Let us pray to live and act in Christ's light to the praise of his and our Father:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the light of the Holy Spirit shine through our Pope and bishops, our priests, deacons, and everyone who proclaims God's Word,
let us pray to the Lord:

That teachers of Christian doctrine bear witness to Christ crucified;
that their students grow in love for his teaching,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the light of Christ arisen dispel racial and ethnic hatreds
here and throughout the world, let us pray to the Lord:

That world leaders look to the Father of light
to protect the innocent from terror and war, exploitation and persecution,
let us pray to the Lord:

That stable governments soon benefit the Near- and Mid-East;
that military personnel return home, safely and soon,
let us pray to the Lord:

That believers share their bread with the hungry,
shelter the homeless, and clothe the naked,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the Lord's glory be upon the sick, the injured, and our many brothers and sisters who suffer the rigors of this winter,
let us pray to the Lord:

That [ ,]
the war dead, and all our recent deceased live in the light of Christ Arisen,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Protect us, Lord, from oppression, false accusation, and malicious speech, to be salt for your earth and light for your world.
In you we trust, now and for ever.

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Before bringing our gifts to the altar,
let us pray to be at peace with God, one another,
and every brother and sister:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For unity with our Holy Father and bishops, priests and deacons;
for reconciliation with every member of Christ's holy Body,
we pray to the Lord:

For truth, honesty, and morality in our homes and at work,
in our schools, government, and church,
we pray to the Lord:

For freedom from hatred and fear, violence and terror,
from war, oppression and poverty,
we pray to the Lord:

For peace within and between warring countries and factions;
for the civilians who bear the brunt of war and the return home of the military,
we pray to the Lord:

For the engaged and married;
for marriages in distress, the separated, the divorced;
for the widowed,
we pray to the Lord:

For the families and care-givers of the disabled;
for attention to the lonely, the abandoned, the imprisoned,
we pray to the Lord:

For our sick, our dying, their families, friends,
we pray to the Lord:

For our recently deceased [ .]
and everyone our Father has called,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Enlighten us, Father, to know your law
and to keep it with all our hearts.
Through Christ our Lord.

SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Priest Celebrant

Look to the Spirit, who dwells within you,
who is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in kindness:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the preservation in holiness of the Church, Christ's Body;
for patience in sacrifice, forgiveness and reconciliation,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the reunion of the many who claim Christ's Name,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our cities, townships, state and country;
for compassion toward the hungry, the homeless, the imprisoned,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the Holy Land, all the Near and Mid-East, Central Asia, Africa, and every land in turmoil,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the just sharing of our Father's material and spiritual blessings
the world over,
let us pray to the Lord:

For resistance to our culture's addictions, materialism, pornography;
for the healing of the abused and the abuser,
let us pray to the Lord:

For injured civilians and military personnel, our sick,
their families and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [ the war dead and everyone who has died this past week,
let us pray to the Lord: ]

Priest Celebrant

With all our souls, we bless you, Father, who pardon our iniquities and heal our ills.
Have compassion on your children
and crown us with your kindness.
Through Christ our Lord.

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Pour out your hearts, my people, to our God and Father,
who is our safety and glory, our refuge and strength:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

for unfailing trust in our Father's providence,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of a materialistic culture;
for the stewardship of God's gifts of nature for everyone's well-being;
for their nourishment and housing, healthcare and education,
let us pray to the Lord:

For farmers and the productivity of the land;
for safety from natural disasters,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in war-torn lands;
for the relief of civilians and the military,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims of racial, ethnic, or religious persecution,
of political and economic oppression,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety and care of the unborn and of all children;
for freedom from verbal, physical, sexual abuse,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers who bear Christ's sufferings in body, mind, spirit,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our recent deceased [in particular _____],
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

In you, we trust at all times,
our Father, our safety and glory.
Be our rock of strength and refuge
now and for ever.

NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Take courage, all who hope in the Lord -
in our rock, who hastens to deliver us:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the Church, built on the rock of faith;
for fidelity to God's Word and Commandments,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the unity of believers in Jesus Christ,
let us pray to the Lord:

For service-centered, stable governments;
for our mayor, governor, and president,
our legislators, judges, and all public servants,
let us pray to the Lord:

For honesty in business
for the unemployed and underemployed; for just wages and the preferential treatment of the poor,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the protection of life from conception to natural conclusion;
for the healing of fears, hatreds, abuses, violence, terror,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters - especially the children - who bear the deprivations and injustices of war,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the war-injured and our sick, their families and medical personnel,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the eternal peace of our war-dead and all our recent deceased,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Father, let your face shine on us,
who hope in you,
in whom we take refuge
now and for ever.
