

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Call on the Father of truth and kindness,
who answers every prayer:

Deacon/Cantor/Lector

For Francis, the Vicar of Christ;
for his brother bishops, priests, and deacons,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the single and the married, the engaged and widowed;
for our sisters and brothers in consecrated life,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the Holy Spirit's discernment of the life vocations of our young,
let us pray to the Lord

For our mayor, governor, and president, legislators and judges;
for our police, fire-fighters, first responders, and all servants at risk,
let us pray to the Lord:

For truth and honesty in Church and government;
for moral strength in public and private life,
let us pray to the Lord:

For racial, ethnic, and religious tolerance;
for peace within and among nations and an end to terror;
for the security of civilians and the armed forces,
let us pray to the Lord:

For everyone injured in war, at work, in accidents;
for our chronically ill, their families, and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the deceased of this past week
[in particular
let us pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant

How deep and rich
your knowledge and wisdom, O Father!
How inscrutable your judgments
and unsearchable your ways!
To you be glory, now and for ever.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Call on the Father of truth and kindness,
who answers every prayer:

Deacon/Cantor/Lector

For Francis, the Vicar of Christ;
for his brother bishops, priests, and deacons,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the single and the married, the engaged and widowed;
for our sisters and brothers in consecrated life,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the Holy Spirit's discernment of the life vocations of our young,
let us pray to the Lord

For our mayor, governor, and president, legislators and judges;
for our police, fire-fighters, first responders, and all servants at risk,
let us pray to the Lord:

For truth and honesty in Church and government;
for moral strength in public and private life,
let us pray to the Lord:

For racial, ethnic, and religious tolerance;
for peace within and among nations and an end to terror;
for the security of civilians and the armed forces,
let us pray to the Lord:

For everyone injured in war, at work, in accidents;
for our chronically ill, their families, and care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the deceased of this past week
[in particular
let us pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant

How deep and rich
your knowledge and wisdom, O Father!
How inscrutable your judgments
and unsearchable your ways!
To you be glory, now and for ever.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

With hands and hearts uplifted,
let us call on the name of the Lord:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For minds and hearts renewed in spiritual worship;
for bodies offered in living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to our Father,
we pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters who bear the cross of religious, political, or economic persecution,
we pray to the Lord:

For the healing of racial and ethnic prejudices and of religious intolerance,
we pray to the Lord:

For stability in the Near, Mid-East, and Central Asia;
for war victims, living and deceased;
for the safe return home of the armed forces,
we pray to the Lord:

For families; for our children's protection from the immorality and false values that pervade the media,
we pray to the Lord:

For the protection of the unborn and of all human beings;
for the reverent use, sharing, and conservation of earth's gifts,
we pray to the Lord:

For our sick,
we pray to the Lord:

For [, and]
everyone who has died recently,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

O God, who are the God we seek,
to you we gaze in your sanctuary,
to see your power and glory,
and to live with you
for ever and ever.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant Let us bow before the God who made us, who shepherds us, as a shepherd his flock:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the shepherds of Christ's flock;
for his Church gathered here and throughout the world,
let us pray to the Lord:

For local and national leaders;
for public servants, especially officers of the law and others at risk,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the recovery of our sisters and brothers who bear the burdens of natural disasters or of human destruction,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the religious and social agencies who serve them;
for fidelity to loving our neighbor as ourselves,
let us pray to the Lord:

For ecologic, economic, and political responsibility; for the conservation and sharing of resources,
let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the tortured lands of the world;
for the relief of civilians and the military,
we pray to the Lord:

For everyone who bears the Cross of illness;
for progress in the medical sciences,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our recent deceased
[];
for our sisters and brothers lost in hurricanes, war, violence;
for their survivors and mourners,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Father, who have reconciled the world in Jesus, your Son, loosen our bonds of fear, to love our neighbors as ourselves
and to live with you
now, and for ever.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

As the heavens are high above the earth, so is the Lord's kindness toward those who fear him;

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our Holy Father and his brother bishops, as they lead Christ's flock in accepting and extending forgiveness,
we pray to the Lord:

For local and national leaders who will share natural resources among the deprived and oppressed;
for the unemployed and underemployed,
we pray to the Lord:

For the victims, survivors, and mourners of "9/11",
we pray to the Lord:

For the conservation and renewal of God's good land, and the food, medicine, clothing, and housing it provides,
we pray to the Lord:

For conversion from racial, ethnic, religious prejudices;
for relief from the wars they spawn,
we pray to the Lord:

For peace in the Holy Land, the Mid-East and central Asia;
for the return home of the military;
for spouses and families who bear the burden of separation,
we pray to the Lord:

For the sick and everyone who takes care of them,
we pray to the Lord:

For [, and all]
our beloved dead,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Pardon our iniquities, O Lord, and heal our ills.
Redeem our life from destruction and crown us with your kindness and compassion.
Through Christ our Lord.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

The Lord is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our bishops, priests, deacons
and everyone who serves at the Eucharistic altar,
we pray to the Lord:

For our teachers of Christian doctrine and the formation of our children in Jesus, the Bread of Life,
we pray to the Lord:

For elected officials and public servants;
for the preferential care of the poor,
we pray to the Lord:

For the mutual support of employees and employers;
for the unemployed and underemployed,
we pray to the Lord:

For lasting peace in Israel, Palestine, Syria, Afghanistan, and every land in peril;
for the armed forces and their safe return home,
we pray to the Lord:

For the continuing relief and progress of our sisters and brother whom fires, storms, earthquakes have weighed down,
we pray to the Lord:

For hospital patients, nursing home residents, and all our sick,
we pray to the Lord:

For [_____ , and]
everyone who has died recently,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Hear us, O Lord,
who are gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.
Through Christ our Lord.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Good and upright is the Lord who shows sinners the way and guides the humble to justice:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For truth, honesty, and trust among Christ's shepherds and flock,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the reform of any structures that harm Christ's Body, his Church.
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of our brothers and sisters who suffer physical, sexual, mental abuse,
let us pray to the Lord:

For elected officials and public servants who take that extra step;
for the preferential care of the poor,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the unemployed and the underemployed,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims of crime, war, violence;
for a change of heart in whoever would terrorize the innocent;
for the imprisoned and their families,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the war-injured and all our sick and suffering;
for their care-givers and adequate medical treatment,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers lost in natural disasters, war, acts of terror;
for our recent dead [especially _____],
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Your ways, O Lord, make known to us.
Teach us your paths.
Guide us in your truth and teach us,
O God our Savior.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

By prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to the Lord:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity of Christ's Body;
for a fruitful vineyard of truth, honor, and justice,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our elected officials, public servants, and guardians of the peace,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the fostering of human life from conception to natural conclusion;
for the conversion of anyone who would attack it,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety of our children and of every vulnerable person,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the swift return home of the armed forces;
for stable governments throughout the Middle East, Central Asia, North Africa,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the unemployed and the homeless;
for adequate nourishment, education, and health care,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick and injured and their care-givers,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our recent deceased
[.]
and everyone who mourns them,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

God and Father,
whose peace surpasses all understanding,
guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.
Who lives and reigns, world without end.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

Our God and Father will fully supply whatever we need, in accord with his riches in Christ Jesus:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our bishops, priests, deacons,
and every servant of Christ's Body, his Church,
we pray to the Lord:

For the gift of poverty throughout the Church,
we pray to the Lord:

For recognition of our Father's blessings of body, mind, and spirit;
for their stewardship, conservation, and sharing,
we pray to the Lord:

For our elected officials and public servants;
for teachers, social workers, and medical personnel;
for the safety of the military and guardians of the peace,
we pray to the Lord:

For the support of parents and parents-to-be;
for children born and to-be-born;
for the healing of the abused and their families,
we pray to the Lord:

For our sisters and brothers in material or spiritual need and for the privilege of going to their aid,
we pray to the Lord:

For the war-injured, our sick, and their care-givers,
we pray to the Lord,

For the war-dead and everyone else who has died this past week [in particular
we pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant

Glory to our God and Father!
Through Christ our Lord.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

In prayer, let us lift up to our Father the Church, the world, and one another:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the labors of our bishops strengthen the Church's obedience to the Gospel,
let us pray to the Lord:

That our lives, prayers, and sacrifices support missionaries at home and abroad,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the Bread of Life and Chalice of Salvation we receive serve God's gift of life, from conception to natural conclusion,
let us pray to the Lord:

That elected officials and public servants obey the laws of nature and grace, to meet the material and spiritual needs of their peoples,
let us pray to the Lord:

That society turn from brutality and violence, addictions and greed, to accept God's peace and tranquility, healing, and forgiveness,
let us pray to the Lord:

That peace succeed to the conflicts of the Near and Mid-East;
that our military return home soon and safely,
let us pray to the Lord:

That the war-injured and all our sick abide in Christ Jesus,
let us pray to the Lord:

That victims of war, terror, street violence, and everyone who has died this week arise in him [especially
let us pray to the Lord:

],

Priest Celebrant

Great are you, Father, and highly to be praised!
Preserve us from the false gods of this world,
to live in the power of your Holy Spirit,
now and for ever.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

The Lord is our strength - our rock, our fortress, our deliverer:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the baptized and the ordained members of Christ's Body grow daily in the love of God and neighbor,
let us pray to the Lord:

That obedience to this commandment sustain our catechumens and candidates in their journey to the sacraments,
let us pray to the Lord:

That troubled marriages and families, cities and workplaces submit to its healing power,
let us pray to the Lord:

That it stay the hand of whoever would attack the unborn, the dying, or any other defenseless human being,
let us pray to the Lord:

That victims of terror, violence, carelessness turn to the Father, who heals heart and soul;
that the guilty accept this same forgiveness,
let us pray to the Lord:

That love for God and neighbor purify society of prejudice, bigotry, and oppression of the poor,
let us pray to the Lord:

That our war-injured and all the afflicted in body and soul find strength in the Savior who suffers with us and for us,
let us pray to the Lord:

That [.]
our war-dead and all the recently deceased look for Jesus' return in confidence,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Set our hearts, minds, and souls on loving you,
O God our Savior,
and our neighbor as ourselves,
to live and reign with you, for ever and ever.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

In Jesus, our teacher, brother, and servant,
let us call on our one Father in heaven:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the Church be one with her Master in professing the one God and Father to a world in conflict,
we pray to the Lord:

That our Holy Father and his brother bishops lead us in the humble way of the one Master, Jesus Christ,
we pray to the Lord:

That world leaders see in Jesus' teachings the way to avoid mutual destruction and to live in mutual support,
we pray to the Lord:

That recognition of God's gifts overcome individual and national greed, to meet the needs of the poor worldwide,
we pray to the Lord:

That local and national leaders and legislatures labor together for the sharing of God's blessings of body, mind, and spirit,
we pray to the Lord:

That obedience to Jesus' teaching change weapons into instruments of material and spiritual progress,
we pray to the Lord:

That our sick abide in our Father's loving care;
that everyone who serves them do so in Jesus' Name,
we pray to the Lord:

That our Father receive [_____ , and all]
our deceased into eternal rest,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

In you we hope, O Lord, both now and for ever.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

With hands and hearts upraised,
let us call on the Name of the Lord,
for whom our flesh pines and our souls thirst:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the Holy Spirit's gift of wisdom;
for its firm guidance of the Church, Christ's Body,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our elected officials and public servants;
for the wisdom to foster the well-being of their peoples,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the blessings of peace upon countries at war;
for the exchange of weapons into instruments of human progress,
let us pray to the Lord:

For lasting assistance to our sisters and brothers who suffer the ravages of war, earthquakes, storms,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the displaced, the refugee, the immigrant,
let us pray to the Lord:

In gratitude for our brothers and sisters, living and deceased, who have served - and serve - our country,
let us pray to the Lord:

For everyone who bears our Savior's agony of body, mind, spirit,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [, and all]
our faithful departed,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

We bless you, O Lord, whose kindness is a greater good than life.
we praise you, who live and reign
for ever and ever.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant

As children of the light and day, lift your talents to the Father who bestows on us every gift and blessing:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For Pope Francis and his brother bishops, priests, and deacons; for candidates to Holy Orders,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the single, the engaged, and the married;
for the widowed;
for our sisters and brothers in consecrated life,
let us pray to the Lord:

For fidelity to our vocations; for anyone in vocational crisis,
let us pray to the Lord:

For mutual support in our families, church, schools, and work places; for the safety of the unborn and of children, the aging, the defenseless,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our local, state, national officials and public servants,
let us pray to the Lord:

For racial, ethnic, and religious tolerance;
for the relief of civilians and of the military,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the addicted, the imprisoned, and their families;
for the sick, the injured, and everyone who contributes to their well-being,
let us pray to the Lord:

For [, and all]
our faithful departed, with their relatives and friends who mourn them,
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Keep us alert and sober, Lord, as we await your glorious return.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.