

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER, C

Priest Celebrant Our strength and courage is the Lord, whose mercy endures for ever:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the Divine Mercy sustain our Holy Father and his brother bishops, priests, and deacons,
we pray to the Lord:

That the newly baptized always be signs in this world of our Father's mercy and forgiveness,
we pray to the Lord:

That candidates for Confirmation, Eucharist, Reconciliation, Marriage, Ordination embrace their vocations in Christ's peace,
we pray to the Lord:

That the single, religious, the married and the ordained renew their vocations every time the Bread is broken, and the Wine poured out,
we pray to the Lord:

That elected and appointed officials labor for the peace and prosperity of their people and for the common good of every neighbor,
we pray to the Lord:

That East and West submit to the peace for which Jesus died to heal the sins of terrorism and war, of pride and greed,
we pray to the Lord:

That our sick abide in Jesus' triumph [today in particular],
we pray to the Lord:

That [],
the victims of war and violence, and all our dead arise in Christ,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant We rejoice and are glad, Lord, in this Day you have made.
Let your mercy be upon us, now and for ever.
