

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, A

Priest Celebrant

One thing we ask of the Lord: to dwell in his house
as a sign of his saving love in the world:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the successors of the Apostles and all the Church's ministers,
we pray to the Lord:

For the unity of the Church with Mary, the Mother of Jesus, and His sisters and brothers,
we pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters baptized, confirmed,
and admitted to Eucharist this Easter Time,
we pray to the Lord:

For the nations of the world,
to know the One True God and the One He sent for their salvation,
we pray to the Lord:

For peace between and among the nations;
for the safety of civilians and the return of the armed forces,
we pray to the Lord:

For our children born and to be born;
for freedom from physical, sexual, and mental abuse;
for the disabled, the elderly, and their care-givers,
we pray to the Lord:

For [ _____ and]
whomever illness weighs down,
we pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters called to dwell in the Lord's house [in particular _____ ],
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Hear, O Lord, the sound of our call.
Be our light and salvation -
our refuge, now and for ever.
