Sunday after Pentecost A5 THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Priest Celebrant Through the Son, in the Spirit,

we call on our Father,

the source of every blessing:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For our Holy Father, his brother bishops, priests and deacons; for our sisters and brothers in consecrated life; for the single, the engaged, the married, the widowed, let us pray to the Lord:

For the reunion of Christians in Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety of local, state, federal officials, and public servants; for the protection and fostering of human life at every stage, let us pray to the Lord:

For graduates, their parents, families, and teachers; for life-long growth in knowledge and wisdom, faith and charity, let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the land of Jesus; for the people of Syria, Iraq, and especially our fellow Christians in all the Mid-East and Central Asia, let us pray to the Lord:

For the return of our forces and an end to terrorism, let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick or injured [their families and care-givers, let us pray to the Lord:

For deceased civilians and military, and all our recent deceased [in particular let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:

to God Who is, Who was, and Who is to come, to God, Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

],

],

Sunday after Trinity Sunday A5 THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Priest Celebrant As one body, let us look to the Father of Jesus, who has entrusted to us

the Living Bread for the life of the world:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

That the Church's hunger for justice and mercy be satisfied only in the breaking of the Bread of Life and in the pouring forth of the Chalice of Salvation, for the life of the world, let us pray to the Lord:

That Christians come to unity at the one Altar, in the one Bread and Chalice, let us pray to the Lord:

That local and national leaders lead their peoples to treasure earth's gifts; that there may be bread for all, now and for posterity, let us pray to the Lord:

That husbands and wives commit themselves daily as signs of Christ's love for the Church and of the Church's love for him, let us pray to the Lord:

That the Near and Middle East, Central Asia, and every threatened land submit to the peace which is the gift solely of our Maker and Redeemer, let us pray to the Lord:

That governments exchange nuclear and other armaments for the nourishment, healthcare, and education of the most needful, let us pray to the Lord:

That the Bread of Life be the strength of our sick [], let us pray to the Lord:

That our departed who ate the Bread of Life and drank the Chalice of Salvation arise to eternal happiness at the Table of the Lamb [today in particular let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant All glory to You, Father, for Jesus,

the Living Bread and Saving Cup.
Increase our hunger and thirst

to share these blessings with all your children.

],

Through Christ our Lord.

Friday after the Second Sunday after Pentecost A5 THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Priest Celebrant With confidence, look upon him whom our sins have pierced and from whose heart redemption flows:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For Jesus' own heart of trust, mercy, and courage within his bishops, priests, deacons, and all servants of his sacred Body, let us pray to the Lord:

For the children of the world; for their safety, health, and nourishment of body, mind, and soul, let us pray to the Lord:

For grateful use of creation's gifts; for their preservation as a legacy to our descendants, let us pray to the Lord:

For honesty and dedication in political and economic leaders; for their preferential treatment of the poor, let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the land where Jesus shed his Blood of forgiveness; for the safety of civilians and the military in every land at risk, let us pray to the Lord:

For our brothers and sisters with special needs; for the aging; for our injured and sick [let us pray to the Lord:

For the addicted, the imprisoned, and their families; for our brothers and sisters who have lost hope, let us pray to the Lord:

For everyone who lived out what was lacking in Jesus' suffering [especially let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant O God and Savior,

be our strength and courage,

to exalt your name and

to make known your deeds among the nations.

1,

],

Through Christ our Lord.

THIRTY-FOURTH OR LAST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A5 The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Priest Celebrant Pray in, with, and through Jesus Christ, the faithful witness

through whom our Father hears every prayer:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For catechumens and the baptized who seek Full Communion with the Catholic Church, let us pray to the Lord:

For the renewal of our parish, diocese, and Church universal in the authentic proclamation of Jesus, the Sacrament of salvation, let us pray to the Lord:

For our Holy Father and his brother bishops, priests, and deacons; for consecrated religious; for the single, the engaged, the married, let us pray to the Lord:

For the safety of human life from conception to natural conclusion; for security in our homes, schools, places of employment, and on our streets, let us pray to the Lord:

For honest, dedicated elected officials and public servants; for our police, fire-fighters, first-responders, and medical personnel, let us pray to the Lord:

For peace in the land of Jesus and its neighbors; for the relief of civilians and the safe return of the military, let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick []; for the chronically ill and everyone who is nearing the end of life in this world, let us pray to the Lord:

For [, and for] our sisters and brothers the Father has called through this past liturgical year, let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood,

to him be glory and power, for ever and ever.