

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Priest Celebrant

The Lord rescues the poor, when they cry out.
The Lord has pity for the lowly and saves their lives:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity of Christians and fidelity to the Cross in prayer, word, and deed,
we pray to the Lord:

For generous response from those the Holy Spirit calls
to the Sacraments of Initiation,
to Holy Orders, Matrimony, the Consecrated Life,
we pray to the Lord:

For the single, the engaged and married;
the widowed, separated, divorced,
we pray to the Lord:

For our president, governor, legislators, and judges;
for local officials and public servants,
we pray to the Lord:

For immigrants, displaced persons, and anyone deprived of liberty;
for war victims and the safety of military personnel,
we pray to the Lord:

For resistance to substance abuse and addictions;
for the physical, spiritual and moral protection of our children,
we pray to the Lord:

For our sick
[today in particular
we pray to the Lord:

],

For [
Everyone who has died this Christmas time,
our war dead, and their survivors,
we pray to the Lord:

Lead us, Father, by the light of your star
to the gold, frankincense, and myrrh of your Son,
who came in our flesh, to die and rise for our salvation.
He lives and reigns with you,
now, and for ever.
