TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME C

Priest Celebrant	Speak confidently to our Father, whose compassion wipes out our offenses
	and cleanses us from sin:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity of Christ's Body, his Church; for respect to every human being as a child of God, let us pray to the Lord:

For our Jewish sisters and brothers in their new year and on their day of atonement, let us pray to the Lord:

For parents and children; for patience, forgiveness and healing in our families, let us pray to the Lord:

For our president and governor, our legislators and judges, our police, firemen, and all public servants, let us pray to the Lord:

For a Spirit-filled year of religious education in our parish and [arch]diocese, let us pray to the Lord:

For civilians and the military; for peace in the Near, Mid-East, and every land in peril, let us pray to the Lord:

For the addicted and their families; for the sick, let us pray to the Lord:

For war-victims, their spouses, children, and parents, their relatives, friends, co-workers - and our country; for [_________, and] everyone else who has died recently, let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant	To our God and Father,
	to the King of Ages, the only God,
	be honor and glory,
	now and for ever.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME C 09/14-15/2013

Priest Celebrant	Speak confidently to our Father, whose compassion wipes out our offenses and cleanses us from sin:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the unity of Christ's Body, his Church; for respect to every human being as a child of God, let us pray to the Lord:

For our Jewish sisters and brothers in their new year and on their day of atonement, let us pray to the Lord:

For parents and children; for patience, forgiveness and healing in our families, let us pray to the Lord:

For our president and governor, our legislators and judges, our police, firemen, and all public servants, let us pray to the Lord:

For a Spirit-filled year of religious education in our parish and [arch]diocese, let us pray to the Lord:

For civilians and the military; for peace in the Near, Mid-East, and every land in peril, let us pray to the Lord:

For the addicted and their families; for the sick, let us pray to the Lord:

For war-victims, their spouses, children, and parents, their relatives, friends, co-workers - and our country; for [, and] everyone else who has died recently, let us pray to the Lord:

Priest CelebrantTo our God and Father, to the King of Ages, the only God, be honor and glory, now and for ever.